Video Content Production Intern

The Video Content Production Intern will produce, film, and edit filmmaker interviews for web and social media along with filming live online panels for social media to help promote the festival. Not only will you have the opportunity to work for the premiere LGBTQ film festival in the world you will have the chance to hone your producing and editing skills.

Eligibility:

Student eligibility for internship positions is limited to currently enrolled undergraduate (2 or 4 year) college students who reside or attend college in Los Angeles County. Students must have completed at least one semester of college by June 1, 2019 or will complete their undergraduate degree between May 1- September 1, 2019 in order to be eligible to participate. Students who have already earned a BA, BS or a higher degree on or before April 30, 2019 are not eligible.

Qualifications:

Applicants should have basic photography, videography and nonlinear editing skills. Experience filming on a digital camera, Adobe Premiere, and prior experience creating content for YouTube are a plus. Applicants must be comfortable using Mac platforms and should possess a friendly and professional office demeanor. Knowledge of and interest in the world of independent film is very helpful. Prior event coverage experience is preferred.

These internships are sponsored by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors through the Los Angeles County Arts Commission. 132 undergraduate interns will participate in the program this year at performing, presenting, and literary nonprofit arts organizations and municipal arts agencies throughout LA County. In addition to their full-time 10-week paid internship, interns will participate in educational events as part of the program, which are funded by the Getty Foundation. The educational events are designed to provide interns with a broader perspective of the vibrant arts and cultural landscape of the County. For additional information on the Los Angeles County Arts Commission, the Arts Internship Program, and for a complete list of all the internships offered this summer, visit the Arts Commission website at www.lacountyarts.org.
